WHEATON, ILLINOIS - DuPagePads, a pioneering organization dedicated to ending homelessness in DuPage County, is thrilled to welcome three new community members to its Board of Directors.

Joining the board are three passionate leaders who bring a wealth of experience and fresh perspectives to DuPagePads. Peter Caligiuri joins as the Managing Director of the National Correspondent Banking Group for BMO Bank N.A. As an outstanding leader and dedicated community member, Peter is looking forward to continuing to make a difference in DuPage County through his service on the board.

Joel Macholan currently serves as Treasurer at Wintrust Financial Corporation and brings vast knowledge to DuPagePads. Joel looks forward serving on the board and is particularly inspired by his three young children to make an impact where he lives.

"We're so excited and grateful to have Peter, Joel and Derrick joining our Board of Directors," said April Redzic, DuPagePads President & CEO. "All three have been serving on committees of our board that help to guide our mission and make our work possible, so I know they will make an incredible impact in these new roles."
